

2009 Social Justice Sunday Statement Resources

Australian Catholic Social Justice Council (ACSJC)

The ACSJC will offer:

- Printed copies of the Statement
- Prayer cards
- Ten Steps brochures with suggestions for action to follow up the Statement
- Web site resources (<http://www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au/>) including:
 - ◇ A complete electronic version of the Statement
 - ◇ A 'summary' or promotional description of the Statement
 - ◇ Liturgy notes
 - ◇ Teachers' resources
 - ◇ A multimedia resource or PowerPoint summary of the Statement
 - ◇ A discussion guide on the Statement (for Advent time)

Catholic Justice & Peace Commission of Brisbane (CJPC)

The CJPC (<http://cjpcbrisbane.wordpress.com/>) will supplement these resources with:

- A sample newsletter editorial suitable for use on Social Justice Sunday (September 27)
- An overhead transparency/PowerPoint slide for use at Masses or other occasions (with a graphic and quote from the Statement)
- Assistance with speakers to talk about the Statement
- Support with any action to respond to the Statement's challenge

The National Council of Churches in Australia (NCCA)

The NCCA normally publishes an ecumenical kit on the same theme as the Social Justice Sunday Statement, however, this year it will produce a social justice resource on the topic of taxation (<http://www.ncca.org.au>)
