

A MOVEMENT OF THE HEART

A Novena of Prayer
from 12 June, the Feast of the Sacred Heart to 20 June, World Refugee Day.

Seeking to rekindle a spirit of tender mercy and loving compassion for all those who flee persecution and violence in our world.

The United Nations High Commission for Refugees today says there is a worldwide total of 50 million refugees, refugee claimants and people displaced within their own country's borders.

Just like them, Jesus spent a large part of his life as a refugee. He fled to Egypt with Joseph and Mary to escape Herod's murderous rampage in Bethlehem and lived there for many years. Jesus and his family knew well what it meant to flee from danger and live as strangers in a foreign land.

The Australian Church is no stranger to the refugee experience too. Woven into the fabric of the Church in Australia are the stories of successive waves of migrants and refugees fleeing from violence and great hardship in Ireland, Europe, Vietnam and other parts of Asia, Latin America, Africa and the Middle East. Together with our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander sisters and brothers, we are a living testimony to the recent history of human suffering across the globe and the yearning for dignity and freedom which burns ceaselessly in the human heart.

Pope Francis has spoken of a global indifference to the plight of refugees and displaced people. He invites us to reject this indifference and to, instead, reflect the boundless love and abundant mercy of God in our response to refugees and all those seeking protection from persecution and violence.

We invite you to join A Movement of the Heart, a movement of Christians seeking to be at one with the loving and merciful heart of Jesus. In particular, we ask you to show your commitment to this movement by participating in a novena of prayer from the Feast of the Sacred Heart, 12 June, to World Refugee Day, 20 June. You might also consider using material from this novena for Parish Masses on Sunday 21 June.

Let us seek an ever-deepening union with God through a renewed commitment to the tender mercy and compassionate love which flows from Jesus' heart! May we become a powerful witness of this divine love and help to wash away the global indifference towards the plight of refugees.

A Novena of Prayer

Below are provided a selection of scriptural passages, a quotation from the Pope and a number of prayers. On each of the nine days from 12 June to 20 June, set aside time at home, in your parish, your classroom or your agency to reflect on some of the scriptural passages and the quotation and to pray some or all of the prayers for the intention of overcoming the indifference and hard-heartedness of our world to refugees.

From Scripture

And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in my statutes and keep my rules and obey them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. But as for those whose heart goes after their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their deeds upon their own heads, declares the Lord God.

Ezekiel 11: 19 - 21

You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean.

Matthew 23:26

They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart.

Ephesians 4:18

Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.'

Matthew 25: 32 – 40

Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience,

Colossians 3: 12

From the Church

We have lost the sense of fraternal responsibility; we have fallen into the hypocritical attitude of the priest and of the servant of the altar that Jesus speaks about in the parable of the Good Samaritan: We look upon the brother half dead by the roadside, perhaps we think "poor guy," and we continue on our way, it's none of our business; and we feel fine with this. We feel at peace with this, we feel fine! The culture of well-being, that makes us think of ourselves, that makes us insensitive to the cries of others, that makes us live in soap bubbles, that are beautiful but are nothing, are illusions of futility, of the transient, that brings indifference to others, that brings even the globalization of indifference. In this world of globalization we have fallen into a globalization of indifference. We are accustomed to the suffering of others, it doesn't concern us, it's none of our business.

Pope Francis, 8 July 2013

Prayers

Loving and merciful Jesus
Come dwell in our hearts
So that we may love as you love,
So that our mercy and compassion might be as abundant as yours.
Soften our hearts
So that we may never be indifferent to the plight of others Especially those forced to flee persecution and violence.
Make our hearts like yours
So that all may know of God's wondrous and boundless love. Amen.

Protector of migrants and itinerants, assist with maternal care all men, women, and children who are forced to flee their lands in search of a future and of hope. May their meeting with us and our people not become a source of new and heavier slavery and humiliation.

Mother of mercy, ask forgiveness for us who,
blinded by selfishness, concerned by our interests and prisoners of our own fears, have become distracted towards the needs and sufferings of our brothers.

Refuge of sinners, obtain the conversion of heart for those who generate war, hate and poverty, who exploit their brothers and their fragility, who make an undignified commerce of human life.
From Pope Francis' Prayer for Migrants & Itinerants

Consider praying one or more decades of the Rosary each day as part of this Novena.

Other Suggestions

Share this novena with others in your family and neighbourhood and with other students or work colleagues.

Use the novena reflections and prayers at the start of meetings in your parish or school during the 9 days or ask various groups in your parish or school to lead a time of prayer and reflection each day during the novena period.

Write to or e-mail your local Federal MP and State Senators, telling them that you are participating in 9 days of prayer for a conversion of heart in Australia and the world on the treatment of refugees.
